

May 14 Set As Date For Frosh-Soph Dance In Bradford Hotel Ballroom

Sabby Lewis Named To Furnish Music For Joint Affair

Plans for the dance to be sponsored jointly by the classes of '45 and '46 are rapidly being completed according to an announcement by John L. Hull, chairman of the committee. The dance will be held on May 14 in the Bradford Ballroom where Sabby Lewis' Orchestra will hold forth from 9:30 until 2:00 A.M. Tickets will be on sale today in the main lobby of Building 10 for the dance which will be informal in accordance with the wartime custom at the Institute. The price of the tickets will be $3.50, tax included.

The music of Sabby Lewis is familiar to all those who attended the recent I.F.C. sponsored All-Tech formal where he was favorably received. Lewis who leads one of the outstanding colored orchestras of the time who is noted for his pleasing combination of sweet music and occasional well chosen swing has recently appeared on the Fitch band wagon program. Although his band originated in Boston, Sabby has recently been on tour and played for some time in the Savoy Ballroom in New York City.

Since it is expected that this dance will be the last for many of the members of both classes for some time and it is certainly the last dance of the term the committee is planning a very gala affair. The ballroom which is on the second floor of the Bradford Hotel on Tremont St. is perfectly suited for the affair and numerous decorations and added entertainments are contemplated by the members of the committee.

Essay Contest To Be Held May 6 Frosh, Soph Compete For Boit English Prize

The Boit Prize essay competition, conducted annually by the Department of English and History, is scheduled this year for Thursday evening, May 6, from 7:00 to 9:00 P.M. in Room 2-390. All first and second year students at the Institute taking courses in the English department are eligible to compete for the cash prizes, which in last year's competition aggregated $135. Contestants will be offered a wide range of topics of current interest from which to choose an essay subject. The essays will be judged by men from the English department staff and by professors from other departments in the Institute, and awards will be based on the substance and originality of papers as well as upon their rhetorical effectiveness and mechanical correctness.

The Boit fund, which provides the income for the prizes, was established in 1921 by a bequest of Robert A. Boit, Boston businessman. First prize in the sophomore competition last year went to Robert E. Benedict, with other awards to Raphael R. Feurring and Lamar Field. Last year's freshman winner was William F. DiZenzo, with other prizes going to Steffen F. Dieckman, John W. Colton, and William E. Katz.

Fraternity Ratings Are Announced On Page Two

With Kappa Sigma and Pi leading the houses, the fraternity ratings for last term, are announced on the second page of this issue. These ratings are given for each house, are compared with last year's ratings, and also compared by classes with the men who last term lived in the dormitories. The ratings of the freshmen in each house is given separately.

Institute Raises Staff Members

Profs, Associate And Assist. Profs Named

It was announced yesterday afternoon that a number of promotions of Institute faculty members have been made. These will become effective on July 1, 1943.

Members of the faculty advanced from the rank of associate professor to that of professor are Douglas V. Brown, Department of Economics and Social Science; Frederick H. Norton, Department of Metallurgy, and John B. Wilbur of the Department of Civil and Sanitary Engineering.

Promoted to the rank of associate professors are Robert H. Cameron, Department of Mathematics; Harold W. Fairbairn and Robert R. Shrock, Department of Geology; Bernard S. Gould, Department of Biology; George G. Harvey, Department of Physics; Walter McKay and Manfred Rauscher, Department of Aeronautical Engineering; Herman P. Meissner, Department of Chemical Engineering; and Ernest N. Gelotte, Department of Architecture.

Assistant Professors

Members of the staff advanced to the grade of assistant professor are Douglas P. Adams, Graphics; Joseph Bicknell, Department of

Bridge Tournament To Begin Tomorrow

About 20 Couples Are Expected To Enter

The qualifying round of the second All Tech Bridge Tournament, sponsored by the M.I.T. Bridge Club will begin tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 P.M. in Litchfield Lounge. David M. Himmelblau, '44, is in charge of the tourney, and expects a large turnout of bridge players.

Only six couples have signed up for the contest on the sheet posted in the Lobby of Building 10, but the members of the club expect about 20 couples in all to enter the tournament, enough for 10 tables. The top couples in tomorrow's contest will qualify for the final play off to take place on Sunday at 2:00 P.M.

The tournament will be run in duplicate fashion. This means that every couple will play every hand and every other couple.

The winning couple will receive a copy of Culbertson's "Gold Book" each, and the runner ups are to get a copy of Culbertson's "Summary". However, the winners will have an option of either accepting the books or taking the equivalent in cash. The only cost to the entrants is a $15 entrance fee for each person per day.

5:15 Spring Frolic Offers Merriment For This Evening

Beginning at 9:00 this evening Michael Greene and his orchestra will supply the music for the revelers attending the 5:15 Club's Spring Frolic. The dance is to take place at the Hotel Commander in Cambridge, and will last until 1:00 A.M. The affair has always been held in Walker Memorial in the past, but the restrictions on Walker's accommodations for social functions for the duration have made this impossible.

Tickets have been on sale during the past week in the Lobby of Building 10, and in the 5:15 Club Room. The number of tickets to be sold is limited to 200 at the price of $1.65 per couple. However, it is expected that tickets will be available at the door this evening.

Dining Room Open

In order to assure a complete evening's entertainment, the dance committee has made arrangements with the management of the Hotel Commander to have the dining room open during the dance for those who desire something to eat. The Drum Room will also be available to the dancers.

Chaperones

The Chaperones for the affair have also been announced. They are: Mrs. James R. Jack, Professor and Mrs. Richard F. Koch, and Professor and Mrs. Ralph E. Freeman.

I.F.C. Discusses Rushing Problems

Will Elect Officers During Next Meeting

The problems which the fraternities will face during the next rush week were discussed at the meeting of the Interfraternity Conference held at the Smith House last night. Both the problems of feeding rushees during rush week, and the problems of filling all the houses, was discussed. The problem of men who had not found places to live by the end of rush week was also talked about.

Several plans to supply food enough for the extra men during rush week were suggested, although no definite plans were made at last night's meeting, it was decided that the committee which is to send out cards to the freshmen would make a report at the next meeting regarding information on rationing.

The question of rushing during the T.C.A. Freshman Camp, was also brought up, and it was decided that houses would be asked not to do any rushing at that time. A committee was appointed to investigate the cost of help and the cost of feeding men in the fraternity houses, and it was decided that

Future Social Plans To Be Investigated By 3 From Solons

Also Require Reports Of Class A Activities About Future Actions

At its regular meeting yesterday afternoon, the Institute Committee appointed a committee of three men to investigate the possibilities of summer social activities at the Institute. The committee was made up of Herbert F. Knappe, '44, Chairman of the Walker Memorial Committee, Robert S. Meny, '44, Chairman of the Dormitory Committee, and William O. Boschen, '44, Chairman of the Interfraternity Conference.

With the band appropriation cut in half, to $600, the freshman-Sophomore Dance Budget was yesterday approved by the Institute Committee. The price of tickets was established at $3.50 per couple.

A proposal to abolish the Senior Week elections was put before the committee, amended so that the date would be set for them by the Elections Committee, and passed. After having waived the by-law concerning the announcement of an agenda, a motion was brought up to have the time for the closing of nominations for class officers, moved from 1:00 P.M. to 7:00 P.M. yesterday. This motion was also passed.

In the business which took place before this, was a motion which will require each Class A activity to submit a written report at the last meeting of the Institute Committee this term, stating the future of the activity, and the condition of its personnel and equipment.

The next meeting of the Institute Committee will be held next Thursday afternoon in order to approve the class elections.

T.C.A. Has 2nd List Of Incoming Men

Supplementing the list previously put out, the T.C.A. has compiled a list of incoming students admitted since that time. This list, for the use of the fraternity rushing chairmen, was compiled through the courtesy of the Admissions Office, and contains about two hundred names. In addition to the student's name, the list includes his address, religious preference, prep school, and date of birth.

Rushing chairmen may pick up these lists in the T.C.A. office after 12:30 P.M., Saturday. One list is being reserved for each fraternity. If the lists are uncalled for they will not be mailed out. Additional copies may be obtained at cost from the M.I.T. Letter Shop.

Nominees To Present Pictures And Ratings By Tuesday Afternoon

Nominations of candidates for officers of all classes at the Institute, including the permanent officers of the Class of 1944, were closed last night at 7:00 P.M. for the elections which are to be held next Wednesday, May 5, from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. in the Main Lobby of Building 10.

The nominations for Junior Prom Committee were also closed at the same time. Beaver Key nominations are made by the Society, and the elections will be held at the same time as the class elections.

The election of a Senior Week Committee from the Class of 1944, which was to have been held at the same time, was voted down by the Institute Committee this afternoon because of lack of interest on the part of the class.

It is necessary for all men who were nominated to hand in a picture of themselves at the Information Office before 5:00 P.M. next Tuesday. This picture should be about 4 x 5, and mounted on white paper. With this picture also should be included the cumulative rating of the candidate. The picture is especially important for candidates for president of the classes.

Debating Society Selects Officers

Charles Wiswell Heads New Managing Board

At a regular meeting of the Managing Board of the M.I.T. Debating Society last night, new officers were elected. Charles M. Wiswell, '45, was chosen as General Manager, and Norman L. Brown, '45, was elected Operations Manager. The third Associate Managership was left open.

These officers replace the former Managers: Ward J. Haas, '43, General Manager; Arthur Derschowitz, '44, Operations Manager; and Leavitt J. Pope, '45, Debate Manager.

Wiswell and Brown formerly held the Junior Board positions of Assistant Debate Manager and Publicity Director, respectively. Upon accepting office, the new Managers announced a Junior Board consisting of: James M. Smith, '46, Assistant Debate Manager; Marjorie R. Siff, Publicity Director; and Edgar P. Eaton, '44, Secretary-Treasurer.

Lieut. Crowley, '42 Cited For Work

Lieutenant Thomas Crowley, U.S.A., '42, was commended in a dispatch under the by-line of William Stoneman of the Chicago Daily News for his work in clearing Nazi mine fields when the American forces under General Patton took Gafsa, in North Africa, early in March. Crowley was Commodore of the Technology Nautical Association and President of the Inter-Collegiate Yacht Racing Association during the year 1941-1942.

Lieutenant Walter C. (Jack) Wood, U.S.C.G.R., former sailing master of the Nautical Association, received a letter from Crowley stating that Crowley had a front seat in "one boat ride I'll long remember" at the time of the North African landings.

WHO SAID POLITICS?

Politics, as such, has apparently at long last been recognized by the Institute Committee as a necessary evil to be borne in conjunction with class elections. In the past, "caucus" held by various groups to determine a choice of candidate to be nominated for office have been held strictly on the hush-hush, and have not been officially recognized by the Institute Committee. In fact they have been looked on with disfavor by the Committee as an official body, although too often actually supported by the separate members of the Committee. Rules on such matters are not too strictly defined, are less well known, and have never been enforced. This year, however, the war has apparently changed things, for the Institute Committee last night postponed for six hours the deadline for the submitting of nomination papers by the candidates for office in next week's class elections, merely so that the candidates chosen at a belated caucus meeting could be eligible for election.

Not only did this caucus receive the official sanction of the Institute Committee, but it is the first time on record that such a meeting has been held in one of the rooms of the Institute. In extending the deadline, the fact was overlooked that the date of elections had been announced some time ago; that anyone really interested in elections would know that nominations close at 1 P.M. on the Thursday preceding elections; that posters as reminders of the approach of the deadline were blazing from bulletin boards all week; and that persons interested in elections would have made a point of having nominations made and the papers submitted on time.

Legally, there was no reason for making exceptions. The Committee's liberal action in this case can be condoned as being in keeping with the general student attitude toward elections at present. Events outside of school have made the student body less concerned with normal activities, and many still do not know elections are scheduled. It is unfortunate, however, to penalize those still interested enough in activities to conform to the rules.

SHOULD 18-YEAR-OLDS VOTE?

There has been much discussion of late concerning the advisability of granting to 18-year-olds, now that they are being drafted for military service, the right to vote. We think that this problem is particularly apropos because the majority of the students at Tech are between the ages of 18 and 21, the "critical" age range.

Those who argue against granting the suffrage to this group claim that these "youngsters" lack the ability of mature, sound judgment, and that consequently they would vote indiscreetly and would be more easily swayed by radical, unsound platforms. History has repeatedly shown, in Italy, Germany, India, China, Turkey, and Ireland, how the youth of a country has come forward to assume an aggressive spirit of revolt at crucial moments in their country's history. This seems to indicate a vulnerable quality in the younger age group which might indicate a low resistance to radical influence.

But are these youthful "quirks" to be considered detrimental or beneficial to society in general? In many cases they have brought governmental reforms in their more drastic form of revolution in some of the countries mentioned above. Is it not possible that these youthful influences, in the modified form of voting, could prove beneficial to our country?

It seems that we are confronted with a problem with no absolute solution, either way. No one can tell what the results of granting this privilege would be. On one side we have impulsive, indiscreet, inexperienced, and unsettled youth; on the other side we have freshness of thought stemming from keen and eager minds, and the desire to make a long future more livable.

Why not grant, as a token of gratitude to this group of young men who are making and are about to make the supreme sacrifice, this voting privilege? There will be no room for selfish conservatism in the world of tomorrow.

Briggs Field to Have Triple Meet Tomorrow; '45 Takes Class Meet

Pastoriza Is Sole Entrant For '43 In Meet Last Saturday

Briggs Field will be the scene of another triple meet tomorrow afternoon when the Beaver track and field team takes on Tufts and Boston College. The meet will start at 2:00 P.M. and will be run on the same order as last week's meet with Brown and Holy Cross. This meet will serve as a warmup for all three teams for the coming New England Track and Field Championships to be staged at Boston College on May 8.

Captain Bob Meny, stellar Beaver dash man is expected to have plenty of trouble with Herb McKenley of the Eagles, who hails from Jamaica in the West Indies, in the 100 and 220 yard events. Other outstanding members of the Eagle aggregation are Harris in the half mile, Killelea in the broad jump, Beschetti in the shot put and discus, and Kelleher in the high hurdles. Chief causes for worry in the Jumbo squad are Drake in the 440, Phillips in the two mille, Marks in the shot put, Adams in the javelin, and Lennox in the broad jump.

After a slow start the class of '45 scored an upset by defeating the class of '44 in the Spring Interclass Meet last Saturday. Though superior in the track events '44 was not able to place enough men in the field events to win the meet. The class of '46 was well represented but could not place high enough to be a serious contender.

Meny and Beecher of the class of '44 were the high scorers, gaining fifteen and thirteen points respectively. Pastoriza, '43, scored 12½ points.

In the 120 yard high hurdles, Beecher, '44, won easily in 17.4 seconds. He also took first in the 220 yard low hurdles, 25.5 seconds, and third in the 220 yard dash. Meny took first in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, and in the 440 yard run.

The class of '46 had a high scorer in Artley, record breaking freshman, who duplicated Beecher's feat scoring 13 points.

Scoring by classes: '45—84½ points, '44—70 points, '46—57 points, and Pastoriza—12½ points.

Lawrence Team Is Topped By Jayvee Lacrossemen 4-3

Hanson Gets Winning Goal In Final Period In Fray On Tuesday

In a contest in which the lead changed hands several times the Beaver Jayvee stickmen last Tuesday trounced Lawrence Academy by a score of 4-3 on Briggs Field. The scoring was evenly distributed with Hanson, Chapin, Phillips and Leonard getting one tally apiece. Ben Martin took care of the refereeing chores.

Rowe of the opponents opened scoring in the first period at 0:15 assisted by Smith. Chapin of the Beavers knotted the count at 2:12 of the second stanza when he scored assisted by Brayton. Small of the opponents scored unassisted at 6:41 to restore the opponents lead but Leonard came back at 11:37 to again even the score.

In the third canto Smith of the opponents scored at 2:32 but at 7:45 Phillips of the Beavers came back to score with the aid of Chapin and knot the count again. Hanson sewed up the game with a goal in the final period at 8:32. Seven penalties were awarded to the Beavers while the opponents were penalized on 15 counts.

The lineups for the teams were as follows:

Sailors Win In Sharpe Trophy Races At Brown

Harvard Wins Greater Boston Dinghy Title In Oberg Trophy Meet

Last Saturday on the Seekonk River under the colors of the Brown University Yacht Club the Tech tars triumphed over a strong field to cop the Lucien Sharpe Memorial Trophy in Brown's 8th annual Spring Invitational Regatta. Teams competing were Boston College, Brown, Coast Guard, Holy Cross, M.I.T., Rhode Island State, Yale and Worcester Tech. Hal Boericke and Ralph Evans were the victorious skippers with Bob Smith and Ted La Pier respectively as their crews.

Sunday Boericke and Evans will travel to New London to compete for the Coast Guard Alumni Bowl on the Thames river. Larry Powell and Ted La Pier will serve as crews.

According to an announcement by John Taft, Jay Schwartz, '46 was elected to the Bosuns Club at a recent meeting. Schwartz is the first member of his class to receive this honor.

Elimination heats to determine Tech's representatives to the freshman Intercollegiate Dinghy championships at Brown University on May 15 will be held every Tuesday and Thursday from four to six P.M. All members of the class of '46 are eligible. Applicants should sign up at the sailing pavilion before Tuesday, May 4, according to Larry Powell, race committee chairman. Formal Racing is still being conducted at the sailing pavilion every Wednesday and Friday at 5:00 P.M. stated Powell.

Taking second place in every division the Tech sailors were nosed out by the Crimson crews from Harvard last Sunday in the fifth annual Greater Boston Intercollegiate Championships on the Charles River. The Rudolph O. Oberg Trophy was awarded to Commodore Dave Noyes of Harvard, president of the Intercollegiate Yacht Racing Association for his victory in division A of the regatta. Noyes triumphed with 36 points while Beaver skipper Hal Boericke took second with 33 points.

In division B Cantab George O'Day won with 37 points as Sam Parkinson of Tech copped second with 34 points. Harvard skipper John Burton was victorious in class C with 36 points while Ralph Evans of Tech and Thayer Richardson of Northeastern tied for second place honors with 28 points. In the final tabulations Harvard had a total of 104 points to Technology's 101.

Another handsome trophy was added to the fine collection of the Inter-Collegiate Yacht Racing Association at Sunday's regatta, when the Northeastern University Yacht Club presented to the custody of the governing organization for college yachting a handsome silver trophy to be emblematic of the semi-annual Greater Boston Intercollegiate Dinghy Championship. The new trophy for the Greater Boston Intercollegiate, which was named the Rudolph O. Oberg trophy, was offered by the Northeastern University Yacht Club in appreciation for the courtesies, sportsmanship, and friendly rivalry extended to that organization.

Tech Swim Club To Sponsor Meet In Alumni Pool

In cooperation with the Beaver Key Society, the M.I.T. Swim Club is sponsoring a swimming meet open to Fraternities, "Dormitories," and Commuters the finals of which will be held on tomorrow at 3:00 in the Alumni Pool. As the results of the meet will count towards the Beaver Key Trophy, it is required that all entrants be members of the organization which they represent. Members of this year's varsity and freshman swimming teams, and all other men who have varsity letters in swimming, are not eligible to compete.

The events will all be dashes and will be as follows: 50 yard freestyle, 50 yard backstroke, 50 yard breaststroke, 150 yard medley relay, and 200 yard freestyle relay. The trials for the dashes were held last Wednesday and the relay trials were conducted last night at 5:15 in the Alumni Pool.

The Swim Club will as usual, give prizes to the winning team. The prizes this year will consist of ¼ keg of beer and an inscribed plaque to go to the winning team.

The qualifying entrants in order and the winning times were as follows:

50 yard freestyle—Tragesser, Phi Gamma Delta; Bell, S.A.E.; Kingsbury, Phi Beta Epsilon; Randolph, Delta Psi, and Oglesby, Kappa Sig. Winning time 27.4 sec.

50 yard backstroke—Alden, Redlin, Sigma Nu; Coombs, Dela Psi; Bourne, Delta Tau Delta; Bell, S.A.E., and Ihde, Student House. Winning time 34.1 sec.

50 yard breaststroke — Cobb, D.K.E.; Strand, D.K.E.; Welti, D.U.; Rosenquest, Chi Phi; Butler, Phi Gamma Delta, and Weaver, Phi Gamma Delta. Winning time 31.5 sec.

150 yard medley relay — D.K.E.

Crew Drops Close Race To Cantabs

Missing victory by a scant twenty feet the varsity oarsmen were edged out by Harvard in the final race of at thrilling regatta held last Saturday on the Charles River Basin. Although almost even with the Crimson at the bridge the Beaver pace slackened and their time was 6:59 compared with the victor's 6:57.

The Cantabs made a clean sweep of the regatta taking all five races. Equally thrilling was the race between the two crews of freshman heavies in which the Beavers were nosed out in the times of 6:59 and 7:04.5. The first and second fifties as well as the Jayvees also met defeat at the hands of the Crimson crews.

Last night the 150 lb. crew left for Philadelphia to compete in the Adams Cup Regatta held under the auspices of the University of Pennsylvania on the Schuylkill River. Crews from Pennsylvania and Navy will be entered in the 150 lb. competition. The races will start at 3:30 P.M.

(two teams), Phi Beta Epsilon, Delta Tau Delta, Chi Phi and D.U. Winning time 1:41.4.

200 yard freestyle relay—D.K.E., S.A.E., Sigma Nu, Chi Phi, Phi Beta Epsilon, and Delta Tau Delta.

The scoring of the events in the finals will be as follows: Dashes 1st—6 pts, 2nd—4 pts., 3rd—3 pts., 4th—2 pts., 5th—1 pt. Relay races, 1st—10 pts., 2nd—8 pts., 3rd—6 pts., 4th—4 pts., 5th—2 pts.

225 Upperclassmen Are Advisors For Incoming Freshmen

Sophs And Juniors Are Urged To Apply For Advisory Positions

Many upperclassmen have recently been asked by the T.C.A. to act as advisors to members of the incoming class. To date 225 men have been made advisors to 513 new students. As the names of more freshmen are made available, more advisors will be chosen.

"The T.C.A. has been conducting this advisory service for freshmen for over twenty years," said Horace T. Robson, '45, Manager of Freshman Advisors, "and it has always proven very helpful. This year, with everything upset, it should prove even more valuable to the incoming men. The purpose of this system of advisors is to give the new men a little first-hand information about Tech and what to expect when they arrive in Boston."

Advise Frosh on Many Problems

Advisors are urged to settle any questions the freshmen may have concerning the Institute or their preparations for entering. It is also suggested that they try to meet their advisees personally and make them feel free to ask for aid after they arrive here.

Letters are sent to the new men telling each one who his advisor is, and the advisor is sent a copy of this letter, the names of the men he is to help, a note on how to get to M.I.T. to be forwarded to the freshmen, and the necessary envelopes.

Advisors are taken from members of the Class of 1945 and 1944 recommended by the fraternities and the 5:15 Club. Each man is given 2 to 3 incoming men to advise. This year, because the dormitory group is no longer in existence, the T.C.A. has had some trouble in obtaining enough advisors, and therefore members of the Class of '45 or '44, who are not now advisors and would like to act as such are asked to leave their names and addresses in the T.C.A. office.

Clothing Collection Reaches Fifth Day

Much Warm Apparel Donated For Russians

During the first four days of its warm clothes drive for the Russian War Relief Society, the T.C.A. has collected a sizeable pile of wearing apparel. Boxes were placed in the Lobby of Building 7 last Monday, and the response has been fine, according to Robert B. Hildebrand, '46, in charge of the collection.

Much of the clothing is in excellent condition, some of it apparently new. Among the articles collected were woolen scarfs and mufflers, sweaters, hats, jackets, coats, trousers, dresses, whole suits, gloves, windbreakers, stockings, and other items. One of the coats was a woman's fur collared woolen winter coat in practically perfect condition.

all houses should submit to the I.F.C. a statement of the number of help hired, the amount paid, the hours worked, the cost of feeding each man, and any other information which the committee might deem necessary. This will be tabulated and opened to all houses in order that they may compare the average with their own, and see where they might make savings.

It was also announced at last night's meeting that elections of all officers would be held at the next meeting, and nominations were taken for the office of chairman. The men nominated last night were: H. Bruce Fabens, '45; J. Frederick Lehman, '44; William S. Richardson, '44; and Robert V. Thiede, '44. Further nominations for this office may be made at the next meeting, at the time that the nominations for other officers are made.
